Ten Frames - a ten frame is a two-by-five rectangular frame into which counters are placed to demonstrate numbers less than or equal to 10. Counters can be arranged in different ways to represent different numbers, which visually help your children, develop strong number sense.

-	_

Part Whole Models - The Part-whole model is the concept of how numbers can be split into parts. Children using this model will see the relationship between the whole number and the component parts; this helps learners make the connections between addition and subtraction.